This writ petition is filed seeking a direction to the Munsiff's Court-III, Trivandrum to finalise the proceedings in E.P. No.411/06 in O.S. No. 231/85. The allegation is that the case is not being proceeded with by the Presiding Officer for want of records. My predecessor directed the Munsiff to send his remarks. The Munsiff has remarked that the back files were very much there in the court and the learned counsel for the petitioner had argued the matter on fully knowing about the availability of the files before the court. I am not very happy with the way in which this writ petition is filed. Since the suit is of 1985, the matter requires expeditious consideration and the Munsiff has also undertaken that he shall endeavour to dispose of the matter according to law as early as possible. Therefore the writ petition is disposed of directing the learned Munsiff to dispose of the matter as expeditiously as possible without giving any room for complaint from any of the parties.

M.N. KRISHNAN
JUDGE
